

Contest Rules for Planetary Creativity—People’s Choice

1. The Planetary Creativity—People’s Choice contest, which is part of the 2020 Rendez-vous de la Francophonie (RVF), is open to all Canadian residents who have reached the age of majority under the laws of their province of residence (in addition to students registered by certified schools). The contest is not open to representatives and employees of the Canadian Foundation for Cross-Cultural Dialogue, the 2020 RVF national coordination team and the persons with whom the above-mentioned employees reside.
2. The 2020 Rendez-vous de la Francophonie’s Planetary Creativity—People’s Choice contest begins on March 1, 2020, at 8 a.m. ET and ends on March 31, 2020, at 11:59 p.m. ET. No purchase is required.
3. To enter the Rendez-vous de la Francophonie’s Planetary Creativity—People’s Choice contest, go to the online newspaper section on the RVF website. Simply view all the finalist entries, choose your favourite, and then fill out the registration form. All online votes must be submitted before March 31, 2020, at 11:59 p.m.
4. You may submit only one vote per person per day throughout the duration of the contest. Votes will be deemed to have been submitted by the authorized holder of an email account provided by an Internet service provider, an online service provider or any other organization, including a business, an academic institution, etc., that is responsible for assigning email addresses for the domain associated with the email address in question.
5. Illegible votes and incomplete entries (questions left unanswered) will not be eligible.
6. To vote and be eligible to win, you must be a legal Canadian resident.
7. The prize is a $3000 travel credit from VIA Rail. The winner or winners will be drawn from among all the votes received. The winner or winners will choose the place of travel.
8. The draw will take place at the offices of the Canadian Foundation for Cross-Cultural Dialogue between April 1 and April 7, 2020. The winner or winners will be drawn from all the eligible votes received via the website between March 1 and March 31, 2020. The chances of winning the prize depend on the total number of eligible votes received during the above-mentioned contest period.
9. The prizewinner waives all action against the organizers if the services provided prove not to be to the winner’s complete satisfaction.
10. The contest organizers will try to contact the potential winner by phone and by email within four (4) business days of the draw. Proof of identity must be provided upon request. To be declared a winner, the potential winner must have voted for at least one of the entries in the Planetary Creativity—People’s Choice contest.
11. Before being awarded the prize, the potential winner must sign a declaration and release form stating that he or she has read, understood and complied with the official contest rules, and grants all approvals required under the contest rules or regulations. In so doing, the potential winner authorizes the contest organizers to disseminate, publish and communicate his or her name, city and province of residence, photographic image or voice recording as part of any promotion or publicity, any transmission of information to the federal government, or any publication for entertainment and information purposes, without compensating the potential winner. The latter accepts the prize as offered and releases the contest organizers from all liability, regardless of its nature, that could arise from participation in the contest and from receiving and using the prize. If the potential winner is not eligible to participate in the contest or cannot be contacted by the contest organizers within four (4) business days of the draw or does not sign and return the declaration and release form within the required period of time, the contest organizers will be entitled to disqualify the potential winner and hold a draw for a new potential winner, and the contest organizers will have no obligation or liability whatsoever in this regard.

12. The contest is subject to all applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws and regulations.

13. The prize must be accepted as awarded, with no substitutions. It may not be transferred, and it may not be sold, traded or bartered. No claim for reimbursement will be deemed admissible.

14. Any controversy or claim arising from a resident of the province of Quebec respecting the conduct or organization of a publicity contest may be submitted to the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux du Québec. Any controversy respecting the awarding of a prize may also be submitted to the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux du Québec, whose role will be limited to that of mediator between the parties.

15. Contest organizers will not be held liable for theft, any forms of loss or any other human or technical error in awarding the prize, or for the loss of entries.

16. Contest organizers will not be held liable for typographical or other errors in providing or administering this contest, including, but not limited to, errors in advertising, in the official contest rules, in the selection and announcement of the winners or in the distribution of the prizes.

17. Contest organizers will not be held liable for any technical malfunctions of any telephone line or network, online computer systems or servers, software problems or congestion on the Internet or on any website, and they will assume no liability for damage to the computer of the participant or of any other person arising from participation in the contest.

I confirm that I have read and understood the rules of the Planetary Creativity—People’s Choice contest that is part of the 2020 Rendez-vous de la Francophonie.

Last name and first name: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____